Kindleberger Cruisin' Car Show 2010

The Kindleberger Festival is a 29 year tradition in Parchment, Michigan. Visitors from all over southwest Michigan enjoy music, arts & crafts, the festival parade, food vendors, children's activities, all-day outdoor concerts, the evening street dance, family stage musical and youth play. The Kindleberger Cruisin' Car Show is a feature event on Festival Day, Saturday, July 10. Bring your vintage automobile, hot-rod or classic car to Kindleberger Park and compete for prizes, enjoy the other festival activities and make a day of it in Parchment.

9 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Judging of Entries

A panel of judges including Parchment Mayor Rob Heasley will be awarding trophies in a variety of categories.
